FREEDOM OF ASSEMBLY

Peaceful assembly is a means of defending their human and citizen rights, freedoms and interests in a democratic society.

The right to freedom of peaceful assembly in Ukraine is guaranteed and protected by the State which is obliged to ensure its effective implementation.

Restrictions on the right to peaceful assembly can be set by the court in accordance with the law and only in the interests of national security and public order – the prevention of disorder or crime, for the protection of public health or the protection of the rights and freedoms of others.

Peaceful assembly can explain how public events that are open and available to anyone who wishes to take part in them. Peaceful events often held to expressing feelings of certain groups, civic associations to social phenomena and problems attracting the attention of the authorities to them, is a form of direct democracy. The main feature of peaceful assembly is peaceful their conduct. The nature, purpose venue distinguish different forms of peaceful assembly.

In Ukraine, there were attempts to regulate situations of peaceful assembly, but a single legal act was not accepted. The most perfect piece of legislation, as of today, you can vvaty version of the law «On freedom of peaceful assembly» on April 23, 2013, which announced the partnership «with the freedom of peaceful assembly».
