

ABSTRACTS

УДК 342.1 S. Nesynova

AXIOLOGICAL MODERN PROBLEMS OF TRANSFORMATION UNDER GLOBALIZATION

The article deals with some issues of the impact of globalization on the legal institutions of the nation state. Directions of development of the law of Ukraine and laws of our country in the context of globalization. It was shown the value of globalization in developing theories of state and law, and to identify new approaches to values and social purpose of law.

Ambiguous attitude is grounded in the legal literature to the phenomenon of globalization. The author defines the problem in certain areas of life, caused by globalization, including complex problems formulated in the legal field.

Outlines the ways and prospects of development of the state in three kinds of theories of globalization, as well as analysis of current theories of law in the Ukrainian Modern Science: neonormativizm, a compromise between the divine and the «living» law, mergers ideas of popular sovereignty with the natural law.