

ABSTRACTS

УДК 343.11(477) S. Posokhova

A JURY TRIAL IN UKRAINE AS A COMPONENT OF IMPROVING THE EFFICIENCY OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE

The article were describes the features of the existing models of jury trial in some countries, such as the USA, the French Republic, Spain, United Kingdom and other countries and its features in modern Ukraine. For this were analyzed the existing norms of foreign and Ukrainian legislation in the sphere creation and activities of the institute jury trial. Special attention was paid to consideration issues of formation composition of jury trial and his activities in general abroad and in Ukraine. Based on the study these singularities were developed proposals for improvement of this institute of justice in our country. So were suggested some changes to Ukrainian laws in order to implement right on a fair decision and the right to citizen participation in exercise of justice guaranteed by international norms and by the Constitution of Ukraine.