

ABSTRACTS

УДК 342.9 М. Sambor

PROCEEDINGS IN THE CASE OF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFENSES VIEWS ON THE CONCEPT

The proceeding of an administrative offence is a complex of interrelated and interdependent constituent elements, such as: 1) the fact of committing the act which contains the features of the administrative offense; 2) the legal relationship that adjusted by the rules of positive law between participants; 3) the proceeding is an integral part of the administrative processes; 4) the proceedings arising from public legal dispute; 5) has a particular composition of participants; 6) the final goal which are subjected all the procedural actions; 7) the definition of legality, objectivity and protection of human rights.

To summing up, the proceeding of an administrative offence is legal relationship that arises on the basis of the revelation or reception information about the fact of an administrative offense by the specially authorized bodies and realization of some proceedings for making a decision about the need for administrative responsibility.